An historic townhouse in the hilltop town of Medina Sidonia with a wealth of original features. Entrance is through large wooden door from the quiet street where you will find the covered central patio area that is flooded with light. From the central patio you have access to all the other rooms of the house. Throughout the house there are original hydraulic hand made tiles along with wooden beamed and vaulted ceilings. There is a spacious living room next to the dining room and newly fitted kitchen. There are four bedrooms, 2 doubles and 2 singles (one used as a dressing room), two bathrooms one of which is ensuite and an office and small music room. From the utility room one has access to the attached garage. Stairs lead up to the spacious terrace providing the perfect place for al fresco dining.
