A charming 1 bedroom house in a well maintained shared patio in Vejer old town. Casa Romagni has a number of traditional features such as beamed ceilings in the main living area along with a wood burning stove. The house is located on the first floor of the flower-filled shared patio. On entering the property there is a living room, a small shower room and a kitchen. An open staircase leads up to the very spacious bedroom and from here the stairs go to the large roof top terrace offering views of the town and countryside.
